

Remiel Lockwood Ministries

Rev. Dr. Remiel Lockwood's Bio

Rev. Dr. Remiel Lockwood was born and raised in Gary, Indiana. His formative education took place within the same city until his graduation from William A. Wirt High School in 2003.

Dr. Lockwood having a zeal to preach the word of God, received his chance in 1998 at the mere age of 14 to preach his first official sermon at the Greater Bethlehem Healing & Deliverance Temple under the leadership of the right Rev. Dr. Aleta E. McCurty entitled, "A Sacrifice of Praise" and he has yet to look back. Dr. Lockwood's gift has made room for him by allowing him to travel within these United States, Asia, the Caribbean and Africa to share the good news to a dying world that Jesus saves.

With his believe in balanced living, Dr. Lockwood attended Johnson & Wales University in Miami, Florida attaining two degrees in the areas of Business Administration & Management with a concentration in Human Resources. Dr. Lockwood went on to obtain a Master of Divinity Degree in Leadership and a Doctor of Ministry Degree in Ministry Leadership from Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia.

Bethel Apostolic Temple of Miami under the leadership of the Rev. Dr. Carol Nash-Lester is where Dr. Lockwood served faithfully for 17 years. On January 20, 2021, Rev. Dr. Remiel Lockwood was called to serve the Mt. Moriah Missionary Baptist Church as its 7th Senior Pastor.

Dr. Lockwood is the author of, "The Danger of Stimulation"; "I Can Breathe Again"; and "10 Essential Tools for Overcoming Pastoral Stress". Dr Lockwood is the husband of Lady Javonn Lockwood, MSN.ED and the proud father of Faith and Joshua Lockwood.

